

Who is eligible to apply for a membership in EAHSP?

Eligible for membership are those Professionals who belong to one or more Associations that are recognized and affiliated by EAHSP.

Eligible for membership are those Professionals who have received professional education from an EAHSP recognized and approved Course. The applicants will be asked to submit a certificate or a diploma, as proof of the course completion.

Eligible for membership are those professionals who practice their profession in a European country where there is no local/national association at the time of their registration for membership in EAHSP or there is one that it is not affiliated to EAHSP.

Eligible for membership are those professionals who practice their profession in any European country; who have received a professional Home staging education; who are already active with their businesses and have at least three projects to showcase and present at the time of application for membership

All applications are reviewed, accepted or denied by the President or Vice President of EAHSP

Is my membership individual or does it apply to my business name?

Membership in EAHSP applies always to the singular individual person and never to a company/business name.

How do I apply for a membership in EAHSP?

To register for membership:

<https://members.iahsp.europa.com/register>

Your application will be reviewed in order to verify your eligibility. Once the screening process is done, you will be notified of the membership acceptance and you will be invited to pay your yearly dues.

What is the amount of the yearly membership fee?

€150 (one hundred and fifty Euro)

It has a 365 days validity starting from the registration day.

How do I make the payment?

We accept different methods of payment. You can pay by credit card/PayPal or you may decide to make a bank wire transfer.

Does my membership in EAHSP also includes a membership in IAHS® INTERNATIONAL?

Unfortunately, it doesn't. However, as an EAHSP Member, you can register at a preferred membership fee.
